

A map of the United States with states colored either green or white. Green states include WA, MT, MN, WI, IA, IL, NY, PA, NJ, ME, VT, NH, MA, RI, CT, DE, MD, VA, WV, OH, MI, IN, KY, TN, AL, GA, FL, TX, NM, CO, AZ, NV, CA, and AK. White states include OR, ID, WY, ND, SD, NE, KS, OK, AR, MS, LA, MO, WI, IL, IN, OH, MI, KY, TN, NC, SC, and HI. A legend at the bottom right shows a green square followed by the text "Indicates RPS or state mandate".

Note: In a few states, such as Hawaii, Illinois, and Vermont the renewable portfolio standard (RPS) is voluntary. Blank cell indicates there is no RPS or state mandate for that state.

Source: North Carolina Solar Center, Database of State Incentives for Renewable Energy (DSIRE) website: <http://www.dsireusa.org> (February 6, 2007)